The Hare and the Tortoise

Story text for photocopying and cutting up

These sentences can be used for sequencing and then matched to the pictures.

One day a hare and a tortoise decided to have a race. "I am the fastest of all animals," said Hare. "Of course I will win." He laughed at Tortoise.

The other animals thought he was rude. They did not like him. Hare and Tortoise shook hands. Fox gave the signal for the race to start.

He ran very fast. He left Tortoise behind.

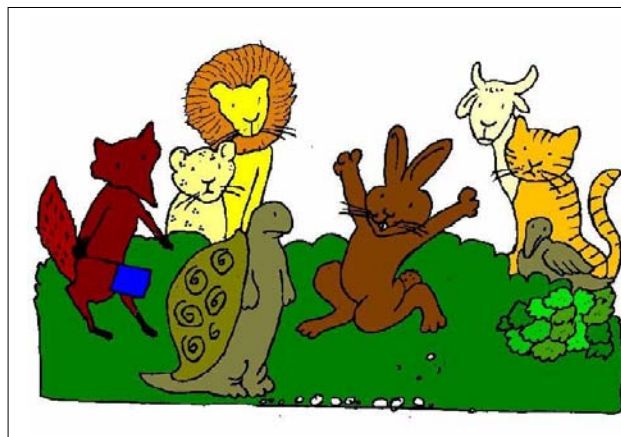

It was a lovely spring day. The sun was shining. Hare was far ahead of Tortoise. "I shall have a nap," thought Hare. "When I wake, I shall finish the race."

Tortoise walked slowly, but she did not stop. She walked on and on.

She walked past Hare asleep by the path.

When Hare woke up, he saw that Tortoise was nearly at the finishing post. He jumped up and started running.

But it was too late. Tortoise had won the race. All the animals clapped for Tortoise. "Next time, Mr Hare!" they said.
